Fall 2014

House Tour 2014

This year's House Tour was not only a day of fun with beautiful weather, but was a successful fundraiser for the APA. Sandi K. Altner is the author of "Ravenscraig, an award winning historical novel, set partly in Armstrong's Point. She had this to say after participating in the tour: " It was terrific fun and all of the volunteers and homeowners did an outstanding job in welcoming the throngs into their homes. The obvious care and pride the AP Association members show in protecting history, creating beauty, and nurturing the future of the neighbourhood is clearly a theme to be emulated by other communities in Winnipeg and beyond."

An owner of one of the antique cars that were a feature of the tour for the second time, commented that " Taking part in this house tour is the highlight of the year for our club.

You folks do a terrific job and we love bringing our cars here."

Quite a few of the ticket holders commented that they never knew this area existed, and that they were charmed by the neighbourhood. The only complaint voiced was that there was so much to see and do that it wasn't possible to enjoy it all!

APA Memberships

If you got an APA membership form attached to your newsletter, it's because our records show you are not a member for 2014-2015. (Our year goes from the AGM in May through to the next AGM). Please fill out the form if your contact information has changed. Email addresses are really important as that is how you receive Neighbourhood Watch information and last minute reminders about events! Membership fees help to cover costs of the parties & newsletters.

BBQ

September 3 was a beautiful evening, and the annual BBQ was well attended. Local musician and singer Kiah Orui, joined by friend Braeden Stawychny and neighbour Jade Hullen, entertained the crowd. Thank you!

Thanks also to the BBQers, set up crew, food prep and shoppers, and to the Twelve Tribes who picked up and returned all the signage and barricades, as well as providing beverages for the party.

And last, but not least: The APA received a cheque for $300 from City Councillor Jenny Gerbasi's office towards costs of the BBQ. Jenny often attends our events, but sent her regrets this year as she was out of town.

The APA

If you have questions about what is going on in the neighbourhood, and what issues the Armstrong's Point Association is currently addressing, you are welcome to attend a board meeting. The APA meets at 7:30 on the second Monday of each month at the University Womens Club, 54 West Gate.

Remember that you do not need to be a board member to sit on a committee. Zoning, heritage, trees and a social committee are all ways you could contribute to the neighbourhood. Volunteers are needed to keep events and fun raising efforts moving ahead, and that is another way to join in, help out and meet or reconnect with your your neighbours.
